Select from 72 foreign language courses or 15 English as a Second Language courses and learn online at your own pace.

GETTING STARTED

1. Visit the library website at www.nantucketatheneum.org:
 - > Find Books, Movies, & More
 - > eLearning
 - > Mango Languages
2. The login page should appear with two options: (1) Login and (2) Guest access

3. Create a new profile by choosing the “Create Profile” option at the bottom. In the future, you will use the log-in side to access your account.

Once you create a profile, an email will be sent to the address you provide. You must click on the link in the email to continue.

4. Your “Dashboard” will welcome you to Mango Languages and show your progress.

LANGUAGE COURSES

5. Select your language course by clicking on the foreign language you want to learn.

For English as a second language, click the English tab and select your current language for specific lessons.

6. Once you have selected your language, “Mango Conversations” will take you to the fully immersive class for beginners.

7. Advanced courses (French “Wine and Cheese” or German “Oktoberfest”) include study guides about travel and culture.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

8. Some Mango languages also include short foreign films with subtitles. When you open a language course, any tile with a film reel icon is a movie or documentary with subtitles.

9. You may log-off and return to continue your course when ever it is convenient. Mango will save your progress automatically.
